STRUGGLE IS TO BE LONG

Prevailing Opinion Now In Regard to Steel Strike.

BOTH SIDES ARE DETERMINED

Talk of Settlement Is No Longer Credited---Union Officials Pleased With Developments.

Pittsburg, Aug. 20.—Following the events of yesterday on either side of the great steel strike there was a lull today and neither side took active action. The contest appears to be settling down into a determined battle, in which neither side will acknowledge defeat while there is hope of victory.

Joseph Bishop, the Ohio arbitrator, arrived here again today, but both sides promptly repudiated the suggestion that another move for peace was being considered.

The mill managers succeeded in manning the last pile mill at the Clark works and are evidently planning a series of extensions at every point where there is a chance of success. They will probably start the Star tin mill in this city and increase the force at the Lindsay and McCutcheon works. An interesting feature of the case at the latter mill is contributed to by the claim of the strikers that Mrs. Bayne, wife of the superintendent, is escorting the strike breakers out from the mill. She has always been very popular with the mill men, and the pickets say they would rather be arrested by soldiers than do anything improper in her presence. They say that in peace times she visited their families and that they would not interfere with her of the men escorts. The steel managers are still struggling for more men for the Duquesne and Monessen mills.

Lloyd Preston, representing President Schwab, was here today and conferred with leading officials of the companies federated in the steel corporation. Mr. Preston and the officials declined to talk for publication. The strikers met the move to reopen the mills with nonchalance with the claim that it will be simply impossible to secure sufficient numbers of skilled men to operate them. Their immediate objective point is the Duquesne mill, which, it is claimed, is badly crippled.

The whereabouts of Mr. Hogan, husband of one of the women, and the father of the three children drowned, is unknown. He is a traveling man from St. Louis.

Pittsburg, Aug. 20.—The Amalgamated Association officials are standing firm and must be consulted before the mills run. They say they have the situation well in hand, and despite the alleged danger of the strike getting top heavy, continue their work of organization with a view of crippling more plants belonging to the corporation. They claim that Chicago will in the end come out, and that there is no danger of the Joliet men going back to work, whichever Chicago does.

President McMurtry of the American Sheet Steel company returned today from a tour through the five mill towns of the Kiskimenetas valley. He inspected the Bloomfield mills running in all of them, and also looked over the two non-union properties being operated at Scottdale. He said production was above the maximum average of this season of the year and that he was perfectly satisfied. District Manager P. F. Smith, of the company, said the Wellsville plant lacked but six men of having every crew full; that the product was coming out nearly perfect and that if their men were not interfered with and actuate by the strikers the situation would be eminently satisfactory. He said also that the best sentiment of the community indorsed the policy of the company. The tying up of the Pennsylvania and Continental tube plants of the National Tube company in this city was completed today. Counting both plants, about 4,800 men went out and both properties are shut down. The closing of the Pennsylvania and Continental plants completely tied up the National Tube company in this district and Wheeling. The company has made no effort to start at any point.

President Shaffer and his associates at strike headquarters say donations of a liberal nature are being made to the cause. They express themselves as much pleased with the situation today.

THE ARGENTINE SMELTER TO BE CLOSED DOWN

Kansas City, Aug. 20.—The Argentine works, one of the largest plants owned by the American Smelting and Refining company and which employs 1,000 men, will, it is announced, be closed down on September 15. Assistant Superintendent McDonald says the shutdown is to give the plants a thorough overhaul and denies as utterly untrue the report that the purpose is to trace the missing shortage of $100,000 in the accounts. It is said that this work will be finished by January 1. Whether the smelter will reopen at that time or not it is said, will be determined by the board of directors at their meeting in New York on September 11. A. R. Keck, a local member of the board, is now in that city and Superintendent Page is in Virginia. A dispatch from Omaha quotes Guy C. Barton, another member of the board, as saying:

"The question whether to make extensive repairs or to completely rebuild the plant is now under consideration. How long the plant will be shut down I do not know. There is no shortage at the Argentine plant. The business will be handled at the Omaha plant. This arrangement is only temporary, however, and it is not proposed to permanently close down the Argentine plant."

During the shut-down some of the employes will be transferred to the El Paso plant.

CATASTROPHE CAUSED BY CULPABLE CARELESSNESS

Paducah, Ky., Aug. 20.—The horror of the City of Golconda disaster at Cotton bar, four miles above Paducah, tonight is just beginning to be fully comprehended by the people of Paducah as body after body is brought to the city and taken in charge by undertakers. The boat's register has not yet been recovered, but it is certain the dead list will number 17 and perhaps 22. The following are the dead as far as known at present:

MISS LIZZIE GRAHAM, Graham.

MISS LUCY BARNETT, Smithland.

MISS MAY FLEMING, Birdsville.

MISS TRINIE GRIMES, Graham.

MRS. W. A. HOGAN AND THREE CHILDREN: Ira, aged 10; Wallace, aged 4; Lucile, aged 6, of Paducah.

MR. DAVID ADAMS, Smithville.

MR. WATTS DAVIS of Livingston co.

MR. CLARENCE SLAYDEN of Lola, Ky.

MR. WALLACE BENNETT of Tolu, Ky.

MR. JACKSON, colored, Paducah.

MR. BILL WOODS, colored, Golconda.

MR. GEORGE WASHINGTON, colored, Golconda.

MR. GRACE BONDEAU, colored, Golconda.

MR. Sanburg, colored, Golconda.

[illegible] caused the catastrophe. A. A. Fisher, the pilot, says the engineer deserted his posts, and that he could not make the boat go with the engines tripped. The engineer denies this and asserts he remained at the throttle until the water was waist deep. Frank Enders, one of the passengers, corroborated by several others, declares that the effort to land brought the side of the boat around so that the wind struck it with full force. There had been almost a gale blowing for ten minutes, and one man who could not swim went to the pilot house and begged the pilot to land. When he did finally consent to land, the hurricane, visible as a huge black streak, sweeping across the river, struck the boat as it swung around in a position least able to resist it.

Early this morning the work of searching for the remains began, the party being led by Charles Graham, county clerk, and Luther Graham, his brother, whose sister was among the dead. Three bodies were recovered in the forenoon, those of Miss Trixie Grimes, Miss Lucy Barnett and Mrs. David Adams. Miss Barnett's face was badly lacerated.

This afternoon the bodies of Miss Graham and Mrs. W. A. Hogan and Lucille, her 6-year-old daughter, were recovered.

The position of the limbs and the expression on the faces as well as scratches and bruises, indicated a fierce struggle when the prisoners were caught in the little cabin like rats. The boat is being dismantled in order that the dead may be more quickly reached.

MANITOBA OUTCLASSED MINNESOTA IN CRICKET

Chicago, Aug. 20.—In the cricket tournament here today Manitoba made 51 in the first inning and 152 in the second. Minnesota only totaled 48 and 72, losing the game by 83 runs.

MINING

Strength was shown in many of the stocks advanced on the mining exchange. Golden Circle to 8½, Eclipse to 11, Ex to 6, and Helen R. to 4¼. Ex went up to 41.

Mary McKinney company has reduced the flow of water to less than 1,000 gallons by tireless pumping, and it is thought the flow will be soon entirely suppressed. The reduction is the cause for much satisfaction in mining circles generally.

Mr. J. C. Conner left yesterday for the Guanajuato mining district of Mexico, accompanied by eastern capitalists. He will start heavier developments on the mine in which he is interested and acquire additional properties.

The Alamo company is saving ore from the Ophelia tunnel level, 20 inches of low grade rock having been developed. Specimens from a small streak show rich values in free gold.

Anaconda leases on Gold hill are shipping good ore.

Heavy production is being made from the Steelsmith lease on the Findley and Mountain Beauty property.

Jim Jeffries and Gus Ruhlin, the pugilists, have signed an agreement to fight for the heavyweight championship of the world.

JUDGE BELFORD ON BRIBERY INVESTIGATION

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, Aug. 20.—Hon. James B. Belford has dictated the following statement in connection with the bribery charges:

"It is high time the public should arouse itself to the gravity of the situation with which it is at present confronted. The exposure in the Anderson case is simply the culmination of influences which I am credibly informed have been operating in the West side court for some time.

"I have been informed that for years back it has been part of the policy of the district attorney's office to regard with marked disfavor any juror who had the courage to vote for acquittal. The gentlemen in that office seem to be more anxious to multiply the number of scalps on their belt in the way of convictions than to aid in the honest and impartial execution of the laws of the land. How many poor devils have been railroaded to the penitentiary who were innocent under the pressure of the district attorney's office and the connivance of corrupt bailiffs, the public will never know.

"I have been credibly informed that some of the district judges have hesitated to call a grand jury, for the rottenness that would be exposed by an honest inquisition would shock the conscience of the state and cover it with disgrace in the eyes of the nation. If that be true, then it is high time that such an inquisition should be made and this leper house of corruption and iniquity be thoroughly purged and fumigated.

"It would seem to me that the legal profession is especially interested in this matter. What client will have the courage to go into a court when he feels that his rights are actually in the hands of trafficking bailiffs and mercenary professional jurors, who in the main are selected and put on these juries as a reward for the political dirty work they have done at the primaries or in some convention.

"If this grand jury is called, as I hope it will be, it should be composed of the best men in this county—men who will have but one ambition and that is to expose all rascals who have been in any way connected with polluting the streams of public justice. Let their investigation cover the whole field, not only the criminal court but the civil court. If any attempt is made to cover up the iniquity which every honest man believes exists and which every rascal knows does exist, then this community is on the toboggan slide to destruction.

"Who will invest their money in a community where there is neither public nor private security? Who will take the responsibility of rearing their children in a community that idly stands by and possibly sanctions the corruption and weakening of their judicial institutions?

"A courthouse should be the refuge of the weak, the oppressed and the poor, and not the engine used for their destruction. When a judge declares that his opinions are sacred I want him first to prove that he is infallible.

"Public opinion is not going to be intimidated by threats of punishing for contempt those who have the courage to express their utter detestation of the methods which the present inquiry has disclosed to exist.

"What the people want to know is the extent of the present corruption and venality and how far they extend into the past. It is high time that we have a general house-cleaning and that certain arrogant and insolent rascals be taught that there are some institutions that we intend at least to keep pure and beyond the touch of their polluted fingers.

"The character and reputation of the state depend on the honesty and vigor with which this proposed investigation is to be made. A special prosecutor whose reputation is above suspicion or reproach should be appointed to conduct it and the selection of the grand jury should not be trusted to men whose honesty is a subject of public discussion.

"From such an investigation, conducted on honest lines, honest men have nothing to fear and rogues will only reap the punishment their iniquity merits."

FREIGHT SHEDS BURNED IN COUNCIL BLUFFS

Omaha, Aug. 20.—The freight sheds and 55 loaded and 25 empty freight cars belonging to the Union Pacific railroad were burned at the transfer depot of that company in Council Bluffs this afternoon, causing a loss estimated at nearly $100,000. The sheds were full of freight recently unloaded, which was also destroyed. Switch engines hurried to the scene of the fire and succeeded in hauling away several hundred cars which would otherwise have been burned. The transfer passenger depot was considerably damaged but the fire department concentrated its efforts to save the building and it escaped serious damage.

THE FRISCO SYSTEM.

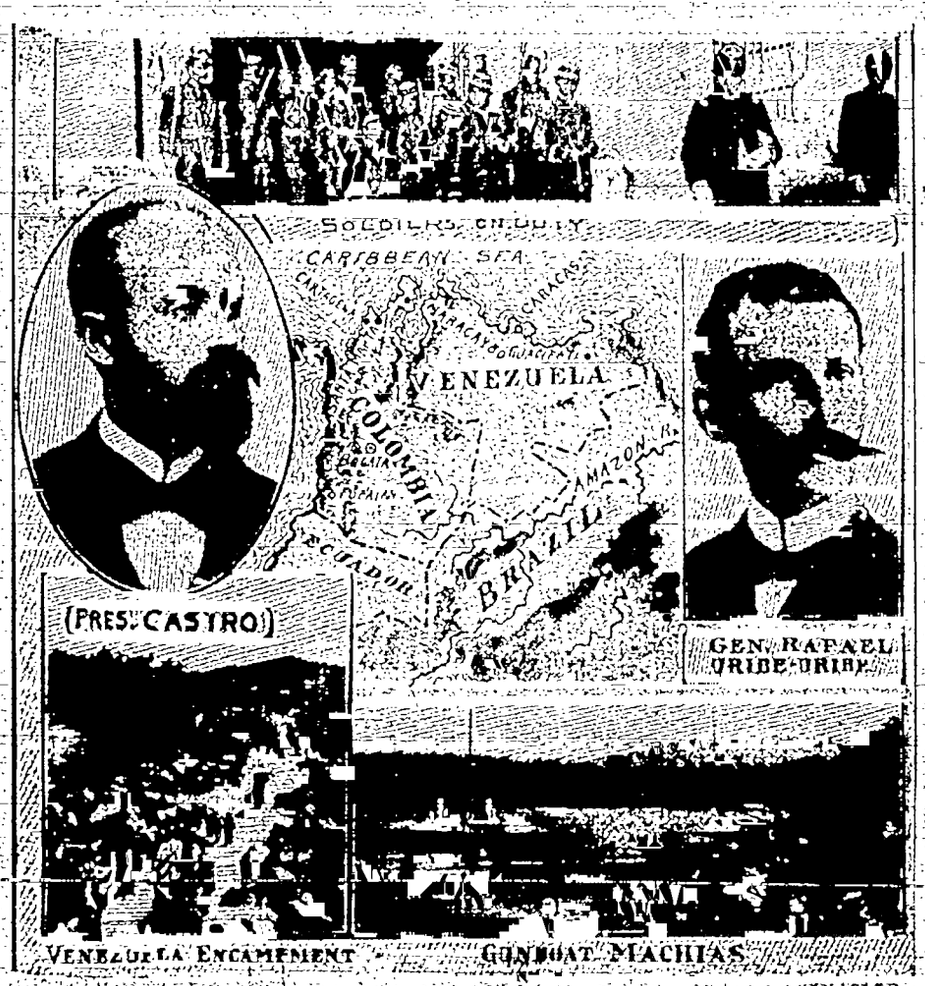
Kansas City, Aug. 20.—Hereafter all properties of the Kansas City, Fort Scott and Memphis railroad and the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad will be known under the name of "The Frisco System." This is the effect of the consolidation of the Memphis route and the Frisco line. With the acquisition of the Memphis, the Frisco system now includes 3,000 miles of railroad, and from date all the advertising matter and time cards of the joint properties will bear the name "Frisco System."

B. L. Winchell, formerly president of the Memphis route, and now vice president and general manager of the Frisco system, returned from St. Louis today and announced that in addition to the recent list of officials given out, S. S. Fulton who has been assistant to the president of the Memphis regime, will become chief clerk in the office of Mr. Winchell at St. Louis.

Death list of the river steamer disaster near Paducah, Ky., now numbers 17 and may be increased.

The Argentine smelter at Kansas City will be closed down September 15 for the announced purpose of cleaning.

THE TROUBLE IN SOUTH AMERICA



The situation in Venezuela and Colombia has now assumed alarming proportions. The American gunboat Machias is in the waters of Colon to protect American interests, and the battleship Iowa has sailed for Panama. It is rumored that the present trouble is really the first move in an effort to bring about the union of the three republics, Venezuela, Colombia and Ecuador, under one head according to the cherished plan of Gen. Bolivar, often called the George Washington of South America. The revolutionary party of Colombia under Gen. Uribe-Uribe, is said to be in sympathy with the scheme as is also President Castro of Venezuela.

OPINION DIVIDED AS TO GRAVITY OF SITUATION

New York, Aug. 20.—The officers and passengers of the steamer Orizaba which arrived from Colon today said that the reports of trouble between Venezuela and Colombia were greatly exaggerated.

"We neither saw nor heard anything of any trouble while in the harbor," said Captain Smith.

"I did not go ashore myself, but I know that everything was peaceful and quiet. The government had put a few soldiers on the trains running across the isthmus, but that is often done."

Col. J. R. Shaler, general superintendent of the Panama railroad, who was a passenger on the Orizaba, ridiculed the reports of battles and incursions at the isthmus, and said there was no revolution in Colombia. Neither had there been any interference with his road. He continued:

"The fact that I have left Colon for a trip to New York is evidence that there is no disorder or trouble whatever at the isthmus. I read of a battle which I know never took place. There were many battalions engaged and 300 dead, but there were never any such forces and they never saw each other, and nobody was scratched.

"People who do not understand conditions down there take these stories seriously, but those who are on the ground do not."

Asked why the United States had sent warships there he said:

"Well, I suppose that the consular officials receive startling information as to what is going to happen and, not knowing the people as we do, take it seriously and think that they must be on the safe side and so they report to Washington and the ships are sent as a matter of course."

Henry Willarbeam, counsel for one of the asphalt companies, arrived today on the steamer Maracaibo from Venezuela. Mr. Beam said:

"Caracas is quiet. Everything is proceeding as usual. The guarantees of the constitution have, however, been suspended on account of the invasion of Venezuelan soil according to information received by President Castro to that effect. War bulletins are issued at frequent intervals. General Castro in an interview on August 10, told me that he had a force of 10,000 men at San Cristobal, commanded by his brother Celestino Castro, and that he had 10,000 other troops in the three border states. He said that no option was left to him in that matter; that he must protect Venezuela. Martial law exists in these three states, Merida, Trunjillo and Tachira.

"I am not aware that Dr. Rico, the Colombian minister, in leaving the legation in the hands of the American charge d'affaires had either demanded or received his passports. I know, however, that he felt it was impossible for him to remain longer and he went with the purpose of communicating with his government. General Pulido, the ex-minister of war, who was replaced by General Guerrera in the early part of August, left the cabinet because he could not approve of war with Colombia.

"My source of information as to the reported Colombian invasion is the statement made by General Castro as above. The impression I received from my interview with President Castro was that he was fully determined to continue administering the affairs of Venezuela along the aggressive lines indicated by his recent actions."

Copies of President Castro's official organ published at Caracas which were brought here on the Maracaibo today contain a proclamation from the president in which he calls "the Venezuelan patriots" to "rejoice as our flag streams in triumph over the Colombian frontier. The enemy has fled, the victory is ours. On the field of battle fell 800 bodies of the rebels, their artillery abandoned, many taken prisoners and their banners torn.

This proclamation was issued after the battle of San Cristobal and is dated August 8. Of the same date and at the same place (San Cristobal) another proclamation issued by General Celestino Castro reads in part:

"General Gonzalez Valencia has returned to invade us by the way of San Fustina, probably, although he has concealed his movement as much as possible. Thinking that possibly his advance might be on Colon (Tachira) I gave orders to General Ruben Cardenas in order that with his battalions he might meet the enemy at Lacumbro where I judge enemy would have made their advance."

EXPELLING NEGROES FROM A MISSOURI TOWN

Pierce City, Mo., Aug. 20.—Amid the conflicting stories from Pierce City have been sifted it develops that three negroes lost their lives there as a result of the murder of Gazello Wild.

The dead:

WILLIAM GODLEY, hanged from the porch of the Lawrence hotel and his body riddled with bullets.

FRENCH GODLEY, grandfather of William Godley, shot in his own house.

PETE HAMPTON, burned in his own house but probably shot before the fire.

Eugene Barrett, also known as Carter, in a confession while a rope was around his neck, accused Joe Lark, a Frisco porter, of being implicated in the crime and Lark was arrested today in this city. This afternoon he gave a detailed statement as to his whereabouts Sunday and he is believed to be not guilty. Some here think that Barrett told any story in order to save his life.

The funeral of Miss Wild took place today and was witnessed by several thousand people. Pierce City is near the junction of four divisions of the Frisco, and trains from all directions [illegible] men bent on bloodshed if necessary. When the mob last night went to the section of the city occupied by the negroes some one in the cabins opened fire but no one was hit. The mob then destroyed the settlement but the financial loss is not great. Reckless firing broke several plate glass windows and a train was fired into.

The rifles taken from the Pierce City military company it is expected will all be returned. Members of the company themselves were out hunting for the escaping negroes with rifles, and this suggested the idea of taking all the guns. The local hardware stores sold out their arms early but several applications from negroes were refused. The mob was composed of a thousand or more and no masks were used. Thirty negro families were driven from their homes. Many of the negroes who fled from the city are hiding in the surrounding woods, while others have gone greater distances in seeking safety.

It is now believed that Will Godley, who was lynched, was not the real culprit. [illegible] say that negroes will not be permitted to live here in the future and that the few negroes not already expelled, a few railway porters, respectable persons, will be [illegible]

The cause of all the bloodshed was the killing of Miss Wild Sunday as she was returning to her home one mile in the country, after attending church in town. She started home alone, her brother lingering behind. About one mile from town the brother found her with her throat cut lying lifeless near a culvert under which her assailant had attempted to drag her. Evidence of a terrible struggle was shown. A copper-colored negro was seen sitting on the bridge a short time before the tragedy occurred. It is supposed that the negro sprang upon her when she was passing and attempted to force her beneath the bridge. She fought with such desperation that he could not accomplish his purpose and he cut her throat in the struggle. Her body was not violated. On Monday bloodhounds were taken to the scene and the girl's bloody handkerchief was laid before them. They immediately caught the trail and ran with full speed to the home of Joe Lark where on being admitted they pushed into the bedroom and sprang upon the bed.

UNIFORMITY OF THE LAW

Board of Commissioners Resumed Discussion of Divorce Legislation.

OPINION OF THE MINISTERS

An Hour's Hearing Was Given to Clergymen of the City---A Few Statistics Presented.

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, Aug. 20.—The board of commissioners for promoting uniformity of legislation in the United States held a short session this morning. Chairman Eaton of the committee having in charge the divorce act, reported that a number of state legislatures were opposed to the act in its present form. He thought that the surest way to obtain a uniform divorce act was to divide the present act in two sections and present them as two bills before the several legislatures, allowing them to decide which they preferred. He thought his experiences of the past year had taught him that section 1 of the act, as printed in today's Gazette, should constitute one bill and the remaining sections should constitute the other bill. After considerable debate his suggestion was adopted and the matter will from now on be printed as two measures.

The next hour was given over to the discussion of the act by some of the ministers of the city. Their remarks all tended toward the advancement of a divorce law as outlined by Christ.

Rev. T. H. Atchison of the First Reform church was the first to address the meeting. He also represented the National Reform association of America. He felt that there was great need for such a reform as is being urged by the commission. He said in the United States there were over 200 grounds for divorce. In one year there were over 200,000 divorces granted, Illinois alone granting over 37,000 of that number. Denver one year granted 1,202 divorces, and another year she granted 972. Continuing, he said, "The basis for uniform legislation on divorce ought to be the law of Christ. General unsectarian christianity should be the law of our nation. The moral features of our country are grafted on christianity."

Rev. G. M. Wylie of Evans, Colo., was the next speaker. He confined his remarks to the uniformity of laws when applied to the home. He contended that "the family is a fact in our social, business and christian lives. God's law says that one man and one woman constitute the family, while man tries to change that law and allow any number of men and women to constitute the family. The law of Christ gives us the order of the family, and man must not try to change that order. I suggest that in working for this uniform law you present to the different legislatures the law of Christ."

Rev. J. D. Rankin was the next speaker. He said in part:

"We must deal with the moral and intellectual character of the home. The marriage relation in our country is too loosely conducted. When children are brought into the world by parents who feel that the marriage laws are not binding, what can we expect of the children? We are anxious to see such legislation as will solve these problems and we feel that the only way to solve them is through the law of Christ."

NEW MOVE IN BRIBERY CASE

At Their Own Request Informations Will Be Filed Against Those Chiefly Implicated.

Special to the Gazette.

Denver, Aug. 20.—The contempt case against the parties charged with trying to bribe the Anderson jury came to an abrupt close and tomorrow morning informations will be filed with the district attorney charging Messrs. Tammen, Bonfils, Thomas, Schroeder and Sadler with all the misdemeanors that have been charged or implied by the evidence. In the meantime Judge Mullins will withhold his decision in the contempt case until the other cases are tried. The unusual part of the proceedings is that the parties accused have asked that the informations be filed.

When the last witness for the defense had been examined this afternoon, Attorney Smith arose and said:

"As Mr. Adams has seen fit, in giving his testimony, to connect the names of Messrs. Tammen and Bonfils with this supposed transaction and as the newspapers have seized upon that statement as an excuse for attacking those gentlemen and accusing them of participating in the alleged attempted bribery and as they do not care to rest under that stigma they desire to be tried by what, in old English law, would be known as 'a body of their peers;' they ask the court to instruct the district attorney to file an information or informations against them upon any and all charges. I also ask that the same charges be filed against Judge Thomas and Mr. Schroeder. I request the court to withhold his decision in the contempt proceedings until after the trial by the jury has taken place."

The request of the parties will be granted. Special Prosecutor O'Bryan will take his authority to the district attorney's office tomorrow morning and file informations against each of the accused on four different grounds. The first will be in on the charge of conspiracy, which, if proven, is punishable by penitentiary sentence; the second charge will be that of embracery or procurement; this charge embraces such proceedings as threats, entreaties, promises of any kind, etc., and is punishable by a fine of not less than $100 and one year in the penitentiary. The third charge will be for bribery, and the fourth will be for attempted bribery.

District Attorney Lindsley has requested Special Prosecutor O'Bryan to assist in the prosecution, but Mr. O'Bryan has not as yet given him a decided answer. His business engagements may prevent him from assisting. In a "so the people may know" article tonight the Post says its proprietors have asked that the information be filed and a speedy trial follow in order to clear themselves of the abuse that has been heaped upon them during the past 18 days.

Just what effect this new move will have upon the calling of a grand jury is not known. It is argued by many that the request that the informations be filed and that a speedy trial be granted, if carried out, will not allow a general sifting to the bottom of the charges. It is contended that the only way to get out the true facts in this case will be through a grand jury. It is also said that unless a grand jury investigates the charges nothing more could be brought out than what has already been brought out during the preceding trial.

PASSENGER OF ISLANDER DEFENDS THE CAPTAIN

Seattle, Wash., Aug. 20.—J. T. Snyder, a resident of Juneau, arrived on the steamer Farallon today from Juneau. Mr. Snyder was on the Islander. He was in the water three hours clinging to a raft and was finally picked up in an unconscious condition. He left the boat just half a minute after the captain jumped overboard and they both held on to the same raft for fully half an hour and in conversation the captain said he could not understand why the boat had left so quickly. The captain said:

"Boys, I cannot stand it any longer," and casting his life preserver away at once sank. At the inquest held at Juneau, which Mr. Snyder attended evidence developed which may tend to excuse the captain for not beaching her at once. Mr. Snyder said:

"The pilot testified that he was on the bridge and that as soon as she struck he told the captain he was going to beach her, but the captain said, 'No, there is a better place about three miles from here and she will easily float that long.'

"The testimony showed that there was a stowaway in the forward watertight compartment and when the vessel struck the water rushed in on him and he set up a big howl and being immediately under the sailors' quarters they thoughtlessly rushed down and opened the compartment, which allowed the sea to come rolling into the hold, carrying the body of the stowaway with it. This was done without the captain's knowledge and I think excused him for thinking the vessel would float several hours, which it would have done had the watertight compartment not been opened and he could have beached her in a small bay about three miles away. It was established that if the pilot had carried out his intention he could have gotten her on the beach without the loss of any lives except the stowaway."

IOWA DEMOCRATS TO MEET AT DES MOINES

Des Moines, Iowa, Aug. 20.—The Democratic state convention will meet in this city tomorrow for the nomination of candidates for governor, lieutenant governor, judge of the supreme court, railway commissioner and superintendent of public instruction.

The sensational features of the pre-convention campaign today were the absolute withdrawal of their names by Cato Sells of Vinton and W. W. Dodge of Burlington, as candidates for governor. The only other names prominently mentioned for the nomination are H. J. Stiger of Toledo, and John T. Hamilton of Cedar Rapids, but as far as [illegible] ness to accept. It appears probable tonight that the platform will be a reaffirmation of the Kansas City platform, with the addition of a demand for reform in railway taxation of Iowa.

A wagon road from Grand Junction to the summit of Grand mesa will be built during the coming [illegible]. Free postal delivery in Grand Junction will start about the [illegible] Members of the A. O. U. W. society visited the Camp [illegible] Ouray yesterday.

CRIPPLE CREEK NEWS NOTES

Important Business Considered by City Council---Seven Lakes Water Proposition

Cripple Creek Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette

Cripple Creek, Aug. 20—The city council met this evening and after transacting quite a little important business adjourned to meet tomorrow night, at which time Edgar E. Wade will explain his proposition for a municipal water system for Cripple Creek. At the session this evening the license of Expressman Walter Alexander was revoked and resolutions of condolence were adopted upon the death of E. T. Clark the police officer who met his death by electricity on the night of August 8. The ordinance submitted by E. F. Wade of Colorado Springs was read and referred to the ordinance committee. Mr. Wade asks for the privilege of maintaining an electric light and power system in Cripple Creek and also setting aside a day when the taxpayers may vote upon the franchise. [illegible] a good one as the rates quoted in the ordinance are low and the city is well protected. A resolution was then adopted requesting the C. S. & C. C. D. Ry. Co. to place in as good condition as it was formerly South Fourth street between Irene and Whitig avenues. Alderman Vandeveyden attacked the Adirondack company for ignoring notices from the city council. Elmer Glynn was appointed a police officer. President Butler of the Teller County Bar Association then addressed the council upon the coming visit of the American Bar Association, 300 members of which will be in the city on Saturday. Upon motion of Alderman Hanley the entire [illegible] was appointed a committee to help the local association in properly receiving the visitors.

Mr. Wade of Colorado Springs stated that tomorrow night he would have a water proposition for the council to consider. He holds an option on 600 acres of land in the region of the Seven Lakes on Pikes Peak. On this land there is a spring that supplies 28,000,000 gallons of water annually. The land is almost a natural reservoir and Mr. Wade states that a 65-foot dam would be capable of holding back 2,000,000,000 gallons of water and a 85-foot dam capable of holding over 4,000,000,000 gallons. The dam if built would be constructed between and near the seventh and fourth lakes. In his proposition to the city Mr. Wade includes a steel pipe line capable of [illegible] power for generating electricity. There have been two surveys made and it is estimated that the property and construction of a water works system from Seven Lakes to Cripple Creek would cost in the neighborhood of $600,000. The operating expenses it is estimated would amount to $1,000 per annum while the revenue would be about $100,000 a year. Bonds would have to be voted and sold at 6 per cent.

The Teller County Bar association is making arrangements for the proper entertainment of the members of the American Bar association who will visit the district on Saturday. The stay of the lawyers will be brief but the local attorneys will see that every minute is put to the best possible advantage. [illegible] will meet tomorrow to complete arrangements and name its reception committee.

Wallace and will be composed of the following players: Collins, catcher; Gillette and McCullough, pitchers; Prentice, first base; Wallace, second base; McDonald, short stop; Hangs, third base; Trowbridge, left field; F. Paroled Prisoner Again Arrested -- Controversy in Court Over Ditch Rights

Pueblo Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette

Pueblo, Aug. 20—Joseph McGonigle who was released last month from the state penitentiary after serving a portion of a term of from 2 to 6 years for burglary and who was released on parole last month was arrested again today on a charge of beating up a well known citizen by the name of Bates. A 38 Colt's heavy revolver was used in the affair. It was drawn on Fifth street between Main and Santa Fe avenue when he was attacked by McGonigle. The prisoner claims that Bates had been out with his wife and he had entered the unresisting citizen's head with a heavy gun. He was captured after a chase by Officer Resoner but in the meantime had thrown away his gun. Bates claims that he simply took Mrs. McGonigle in his buggy to a place where she could get some washing. Only a short time ago Mrs. McGonigle reported that her husband had chased her out of the house with a club but her knife. McGonigle's crime for which he was sentenced was for stealing some shoes from the Santa Fe railway.

[illegible] in charge of attempted burglary. He was an employe of a restaurant on Union avenue and it is alleged that he attempted to burglarize the store of A. B. Allen at 115½ South Union. The burglars managed to blow open the safe but were frightened away before they secured anything. There was $150 in cash and $2,000 worth of valuables in the safe. A number of people heard the explosion and Andy Ross, a bartender, ran across the street, probably being the cause of the robbers' hasty departure.

Some little excitement was created on South Union avenue this afternoon by what was evidently a horse whipping. A young girl in a buggy was set upon by a young woman with a buggy whip [illegible] in a street car. Both of the parties got away before anyone could recognize them or secure any details of the whipping.

In the district court today Judge Vanderlip issued a temporary injunction restraining Thomas Nesbitt and Thomas Mollett from interfering in any manner with the headgate or other property of the Poorly Fed Mining and Milling Co. The injunction was issued upon the application of the company which claimed that Nesbitt and Mollett refused to comply with the company's distribution of water during the recent drought and broke down the gates to take the water they wanted.

At Riverton on the Rio Grande west of Pueblo engine 74 pulling eastbound freight No. 84 ran through a bridge which was being repaired and upon which no signal lights were displayed. The fireman and engineer jumped and no one was hurt. The wreck was a sight to behold.

[illegible] of Colorado and the Thirty-sixth volunteers has been appointed a first lieutenant in the regular army. He received his assignment today to the Seventh cavalry with instructions to go to Denver and go to Fort Logan for temporary duty.

An effort is being made to more fully identify the man supposed to be Chas. Y. Ward, who was killed and instantly killed at midnight Sunday night by Santa Fe train No. 8. A number of addresses, including Charles Y. Ward, were found in a note book but communication with them has thrown no light upon the man's identity. The dead man also has an express receipt for satchel sent from Victor to Denver on Aug. 13. The satchel sent from Victor to Denver on Aug. 15. The satchel was sent to Pueblo today but it contained nothing that would give further information about the man. Ward was scarcely mangled at all, his head being severed from the trunk as cleanly as though it had been done by a knife.

Frank Rosso, an Italian, and John Hughes, a negro, will be tried in the county court Thursday for insanity. Both are said to be dangerously insane.

The Pueblo Press club gave a smoker this evening at the rooms of the Business Men's association, and it was very largely attended. Impromptu speeches, story telling and a short business session made up the evening program.

ARCADES FOUND TROUBLE—The Arcades played in hard luck against a scrub team Sunday afternoon, being beaten by a score of 10 to 5. The game was called at 2.30 o'clock on Miles' field. By the end of the fifth inning Meates of the Arcades was knocked out of the box and Falk was put in as substitute. Falk succeeded in shutting out his opponents three times straight. The game was a good one and was witnessed by a good sized crowd.

ANNUITY ASSOCIATION—The American Annuity association will hold its meeting Wednesday evening in the W. C. T. U. hall. The association has done but very little for the past few days, as the officers have been waiting for Mr. Swinford's return, which is expected now in a few days. The Rev. Mr. Smith, who was one of the most interested in the new association, is reported to be improving at his home in Kansas, where he was obliged to go on account of illness. In the course of a month he will be able to return to the city.

GOOD SEED STREWN ON STERILE SOIL

H. G. Loesch, the blacksmith, is now repenting himself of doing the Good Samaritan act, for his good nature has been imposed upon and he is a good many dollars to the bad as the result of it all.

Loesch recently ran across a man named H. D. Johnson, whom he employed in his shop. Johnson became sick, and, being without friends, appealed to Loesch, who took him under his care and sent him to St. Francis hospital. Johnson got well again, but said he felt as though he needed a little outing to thoroughly place himself up. Loesch kindly offered him the use of his camping outfit and Johnson set out for Hartsell, Colo. He arrived there and then his falseness began to show itself, for he sold the outfit and went to Denver.

Loesch was kicking himself for being taken in and was not so much ... the loss of his camping outfit, but was rather congratulating himself on getting out so easy when he found something else to worry about. He went to the bank a few days ago to get his account balanced and, when he got his book back he found that he was $84 short. He began to smell a rat and started to investigate, when he found that three checks, bearing the name of Loesch, but which he had never signed, had been presented to the bank and had been paid. Loesch has a very strong suspicion that his sick blacksmith knows something about these checks, and now he is out hunting for him.

UP AGAINST A BUNCO GAME

Tourists in Manitou Lose All Kinds of Money In Doped Drinks and Pastimes of Chance.

Marshal Cree of Manitou is on the lookout for the members of a gang of bunco steerers who have been seeking victims among the tourist visitors to the mountain resort. The gang is said to have its headquarters in Colorado City and two victims of its daring game have already reported their experiences to the Manitou authorities. No arrests have yet been made.

There are supposed to be four swindlers in the gang. They become acquainted with strangers in Manitou by showing them ore specimens. If the acquaintance progresses, the intended victim is invited to the headquarters of the steerers in Colorado City, where he is either drugged and robbed or swindled out of his money in a gambling game. How many successful operations of this sort the bunco men have carried on this summer is not known.

Last Thursday a well-dressed young man reported to Marshal Cree that the members of the gang had attempted to drug him in a room in Colorado City. He had been inveigled into the place by the sharpers and soon discovered that he was drinking drugged liquor. He escaped and went to a drug store where he drank an emetic. He was so frightened by his experience that he gave all his money and valuables into the keeping of the marshal until Sunday, when he left town.

Another case reported to the marshal was that of an elderly man who lost his money to the four bunco men in a poker game. They met him in Manitou and persuaded him to go to Colorado City, where they took him to a barely furnished room and tried to coax him to drink with them. He refused, but finally agreed to let one of the men play a hand for him in a game of poker. The man soon lost all of the victim's money to the others.

One of the crooks was seen by one of the victims in Manitou yesterday afternoon. Marshal Cree was notified, but the steerer got wind that he was being hunted and made his escape.

Covers were laid for ten. Those present were: Messrs. Reardon, Hunt, Haiff and Gumbel; Misses Fordyce, Reardon, Sawyer and the Misses Gumbel. Mrs. Gumbel chaperoned the party.

For Protection at the Grade Crossings

The Santa Fe, Colorado Midland and Colorado and Southern railroads must maintain a flagman or erect gateways at each of the following crossings: South Cascade avenue, South Tejon street, South Nevada avenue, East Pike's Peak avenue, East Boulder street, North El Paso street and East Platte avenue.

This action was taken at the city council meeting last night and the city attorney was instructed to notify the railroads of the requirements of the council. The subject was brought up by City Attorney Sheafor, who reported on what steps he had taken to enforce the ordinance.

Mr. Sheafor stated that he had written the officials of the various roads and had received replies from them. He read his letters and their replies. The matter had progressed to the point that the railroads wanted to know what sort of safety appliances the council wanted at the various crossings. Mr. Sheafor ... the question coming. One railroad suggested gongs as a temporary safe device and wanted to know the council's opinion of gongs. Mr. Sheafor asked for further instructions from the council.

Mr. Capell opened the discussion by giving his opinion of gongs in no uncertain terms. He recommended them as guaranteed to warn the whole neighborhood if they didn't go so far as to kill a man with fright. A gong, he thought, might do for some crossings, but not for those that are very much traveled. He thought the main thoroughfares should be protected by gates or a flagman.

Mr. Madden ... of the same opinion and he specified Tejon street and Pike's Peak avenue as two crossings that should be protected by gates. Alderman Banning spoke in a similar vein and brought the matter to a point by moving that the roads be instructed to maintain a flagman or erect a gate at the Nevada, Cascade and Tejon crossings of the Midland and the Southern roads and at the Pike's Peak crossing of the Santa Fe. Mr. Capell amended by including Boulder street, El Paso street and Platte avenue. The motion was put in this form and was carried unanimously.

The railroads are ... in regards ... at some future meeting the council will probably take up the other crossings and arrive at some conclusions regarding them.

Scrofula

THE OFFSPRING OF HEREDITARY BLOOD TAINT.

Scrofula is but a modified form of Blood Poison and Consumption. The parent who is tainted by either will see in the child the same disease manifesting itself in the form of swollen glands of the neck and throat, catarrh, weak eyes, offensive sores and abscesses and oftentimes white swelling—sure signs of Scrofula. There may be no external signs for a long time, for the disease develops slowly in some cases, but the poison is in the blood and will break out at the first favorable opportunity. S. S. S. cures this wasting, destructive disease by first purifying and building up the blood and stimulating and invigorating the whole system.

J. M. Seals, 15 Public Square, Nashville, Tenn., says: "Ten years ago my daughter fell and cut her forehead. From this wound the glands on the side of her face became swollen and bursted. Some of the best doctors here and elsewhere attended her without any benefit. We decided to try S. S. S., and a few bottles cured her entirely."

SSS makes new and pure blood to nourish and strengthen the body, and is a positive and safe cure for Scrofula. It overcomes all forms of blood poison, whether inherited or acquired, and no remedy so thoroughly and effectively cleanses the blood. If you have any blood trouble, or your child has inherited some blood taint, take S. S. S. and get the blood in good condition and prevent the disease doing further damage.

Send for our free book and write our physicians about your case. We make no charge whatever for medical advice.

INFORMATION ABOUT COLORADO.

It is common opinion fully attested by reliable statistics that there are more people in Colorado this summer than there were ever before A majority of these people are visitors, drawn hither by the two powerful motives of health seeking or pleasure seeking But with these tourists are also to a degree not equaled in recent years the home seekers men who are looking for opportunities for investment, for business for employment for sharing in the work of building up our great state and developing its marvelous resources

With the enlargement of the tourist business, which is no longer limited to one section nor to a few favored towns and with the presence here of an ever increasing number of home seekers the need is felt of a source of information regarding the state and its various localities and opportunities. Such a source should be thoroughly reliable and absolutely impartial It should have no pet schemes of its own to promote it should not be connected with any development or promotion company It should not be prejudiced for or against any locality or community but it should make it its invariable rule to furnish the information desired as accurately and as promptly and as completely as possible

The Gazette believes that it is in a position to undertake this work for the benefit of the state and our intending citizens and tourists better than anyone else can now do Within the past few years Colorado Springs has become more and more the center of the tourist and investment business of the state As in the old days Pike's Peak was the landmark that drew the wagon trains across the plains so at the present time Colorado Springs is the center towards which the lines of tourist travel converge and from which they radiate towards all parts of the state A Colorado Springs newspaper can settle more information about the state it can find out better what the newcomers want, and it can reach more people with this information than a newspaper printed in any other city

Further than that Colorado Springs and the Gazette have no axes of their own to grind in this matter—The policy of the city which is also the policy of this newspaper, is well settled It is to do all that we can to building up all the state believing that such a policy will be for the best interest of every part of it including ourselves What Colorado Springs is and the peculiar combination of circumstances upon which it relies for its continued growth and prosperity are sufficiently well known and there is nothing in them that would cause us to work against any city town or county in the state

The people of Colorado Springs and its newspaper could find no better field for their efforts than to promote the settlement and development of the state by directing the tourists the invalids and the homeseekers to those localities where they can find the nearest approach to the conditions they desire and to the opportunities they seek.

Beginning next week the Gazette will on each Tuesday morning publish a department of Colorado information consisting of information in regard to the climatic scenic agricultural and business resources of the state, including answers to queries and requests for information. This department will also appear on the Weekly Gazette

Inasmuch as the mining resources and interests of the state are already well cared for by the Mining Investor and by every day's issue of the Gazette the information bureau will not, for the present at least, include mining

This information will be furnished absolutely without charge through the columns of the Gazette the only conditions being that the person seeking the information must be a subscriber to this paper and that the Gazette while using every effort to secure absolute accuracy and reliability for this information does not assume any responsibility for the statements made in this department or guarantee them in any way

We most cordially invite the co-operation of the state press of state and county officials of the people of the various counties and of our visitors and home seekers to make this department of the Gazette a success in the line intended in building up our state and in bringing health pleasure and prosperity to all who for a longer or a shorter time may take up their residence among us.

THE HORSE SHOW.

People in Colorado Springs are well aware that there are a great many fine horses and carriages of various kinds but we believe that the horse show which was opened last evening is a surprise even to our own citizens in this line

It is a pleasure to see a good horse under almost any conditions and a ride or walk through Colorado Springs streets at almost any time will be rewarded with a glimpse of some of the many handsome animals that are kept here for riding or driving But it is only when these are brought together in such a way that their differences as well as their resemblances may be noted that a proper estimate can be made of our possessions

The horse show management certainly deserves credit for getting up what is probably the best exhibition of the kind ever held in the state

CENTURY CHEST CONTEST--EXTENSION OF TIME-LIMIT.

To the Editor of the Gazette There are many who would like to have a few more days in which to prepare the letter descriptive of the opening of the Century chest. The subject is difficult and calls for thoughtful preparation

Therefore if it is all the same to the publishers the competitors would very much appreciate and profit by an extension of time, say for a week, August 31 instead of August 24 An answer will be looked for in the morning paper

In compliance with this and other similar requests received at this office announcement is made that the time limit of the Century chest contest is extended for one week until Saturday August 31 All manuscripts received in this office prior to midnight on that day will be submitted to the committee for judgment according to the terms of the contest as already announced

So that the people may know without waiting a hundred years the Gazette offers prizes for the best imaginative description of the opening of the Century chest.

For the best account, five dollars.

For the second best account, three dollars

Manuscripts to be typewritten and not less than 1 000 nor more than 3 000 words in length

Each manuscript to be signed with a nom de plume and to be without other indication of authorship Real name and address to be inclosed in a sealed envelope bearing the nom de plume on the outside

Prizes to be awarded for the Gazette by a committee of three to be named later

Manuscripts must be handed in not later than August 31 1901

FESTIVAL OF MOUNTAIN AND PLAIN

The Denver Festival of Mountain and Plain was not held last year but this year it will be renewed under circumstances more favorable to its success than in any previous year

The dates fixed for the celebration are the 1st 2d and 3d of October The program as announced includes a grand industrial parade and exhibition of the resources of Colorado a rough riders exhibition for the championship belt of the world an up-to-date grand progressive three ring circus with thrilling specialties a gorgeous parade of the Slaves of the Silver Serpent and a great masked carnival parade and open air mask ball by electric light.

The management of the Denver festival is in good hands and it promises to be an affair that will be in every way creditable to the city and the state and satisfactory to all visitors

It should be remembered that Denver contributed very materially to the success of our own Quarto-centennial celebration and indeed it was the support of the Mountain and Plain committee at a critical time that really turned the tide of sentiment in our favor throughout the state. Colorado Springs should be well represented at the Denver festival and no doubt it will be largely attended by our people.

THE TRIP OF THE GEOLOGISTS.

It would be difficult to find a region in which the study of geology is more interesting or more profitable than it is in Colorado The very name of the Rocky mountains suggests that the strata on which the geologist reads the records of the past are disclosed to view free to a great extent from the encumbering soil that hides the story in other countries The upheavals of the mountains have resulted in many places in putting the lower rocks at the top the rapid slopes have greatly hastened the process of valley and canon making and the various breaks and folds and slips of the strata are a delightful object lesson to the student

Add to these things the marvelous mineral wealth of the state towards whose discovery and development the work of the scientists has been a most notable and practical aid and there is present a most notable combination sufficient to excite the interest of any geologist. In fact there is scarcely any branch of the science that cannot be studied to advantage in Colorado We have no active volcanoes to be sure and there remain only remnants of the great glaciers that once ploughed through our valleys But the traces of the presence of both these mighty agents are unmistakable and their methods of operation and their results may perhaps be studied to better advantage here than in regions where they are still active In mineralogy in the study of vein formation in petrology, in fossils and in fact in all the departments of dynamical and historical geology Colorado offers a most attractive field

We are certain that the distinguished scientists who are now making a tour of the state will enjoy a most pleasurable and profitable trip while the results of the investigations can hardly fail to be beneficial and may be of really great importance to the development of our material resources

MUCH NEEDED IMPROVEMENT.

The GAZETTE has repeatedly called attention to the divorce laws of this state as disgraceful and utterly inconsistent with the best interests of any civilized community Certainly the judges cannot be blamed for enforcing the law as it stands and it is only natural that lawyers should look out for the interests of their clients It is the law that is at fault and reform of the present conditions can only come through a reform of the law

We are glad to see that the commission for the uniformity of law which meets in conjunction with the American Bar association has already devoted special attention to this matter and has prepared an act on divorce which if it receives the sanction of the legislature of Colorado as it already has that of the lawmakers of numerous other states will go far towards correcting the present evils

[illegible] easy under our present system for residents in other states who come to this one for the express purpose of securing a divorce and who have no genuine intention of becoming permanent residents here The proposed act aims directly at these cases and also gives special attention to the abuse by which divorce is secured in the absence and sometimes without the knowledge of one of the parties concerned

It is very much to be hoped that the influence of the Bar association will be sufficient to secure the adoption of this much needed act at the next session of the Colorado legislature

There is a surprising amount of sentiment being manufactured against a continuance of the Chinese exclusion act. The Gazette cannot believe that any large number of sincere Americans are in favor of letting down the bars to Chinese immigration but the articles that are appearing from time to time in some of the larger newspapers of the country show that the matter cannot be safely disregarded There is no doubt that a strong effort will be made to throw open the doors to the Chinese and the people of the country and especially of the west should be already moving to protect their interests.

FROM THE STATE PRESS

At Colorado Springs and Victor last week Vice President Roosevelt received the most cordial reception by all classes of people In the east, Colonel Roosevelt has won the admiration of all people by his honesty and daring and in the west those same traits have endeared him to an equally intelligent people But all this there will be a force—the desire of the people—that will carry the man to any position however high in their gift It will be accorded him with the belief that he will render the most praiseworthy service not in return for the honor though but because he has too much manhood too strong a personality to do other wise than his best even if it be slight It has never yet been charged against Col Roosevelt that he is or ever even though he has been in public life for years he is a [illegible] the importance of true character and must be as Caesar would have his wife above suspicion To have in view such noble manhood is fortunate indeed and at the head of the nation he would be the constant torch bearer of truth, happiness, manhood, freedom and progress—(Berthoud Bulletin)

The season is at hand when the unsuspecting tenderfoot with his little kit of his luxurious home in the effete east and hies him to the impregnable fastnesses of our mountains and there (by proxy) slays deer bear and mountain lions by the score He arms himself with all the latest improved implements of warfare plenty of snake bite and gets one of our experienced guides usually a rare man who has just finished laying and goes after game Ten chances to one the guide kills his deer for him [illegible] ammunition at everything in sight But he returns with a two weeks growth of beard and a whole lot of experience and takes the first train for home to tell his friends how he killed deer [illegible] the ranchmen pockets his $4 00 to $5 00 per day for the trip and both are happy—(Rifle Reveille

President Palmer of the Rio Grande Western has adopted a mode of disposing of his surplus wealth which should commend itself to those who have to toil that they can live themselves use For years he has been the controlling factor in his company and he had a personal interest and acquaintance with those under him Since his retirement which recently occurred he has distributed $1 000 000 of the stock of the company to its several employees His gift he calls a share of the profits that belongs to them Thus he recognizes that the men worked with him helped make the road a success and are entitled to a share in the profits His act will also benefit the road in the future as the men are now stockholders and will be interested in the road and its business For years the Illinois Central has encouraged its employes to invest their earnings in the stock of the road The Northern Pacific is pursuing the same methods In each case it works well and it would inure to the benefit of all railroads if they would do [illegible] wealth General Palmer has done better than Carnegie and Rockefeller He has aided those who by their toil have not only helped make his wealth but have built up the country We doubt not each of the men will have better use of this money than the half worked professors of Chicago University make of Rockefeller's (Pueblo Courier

Once more we must commend the Colorado Springs Gazette for the enterprise it exhibited during the Quarto centennial jubilee Its splendid illustrated editions were highly appreciated and did as much as anything to give our visitors a good impression of our city The rapidly occurring interesting events were accurately portrayed in a fashion which would have been creditable to any of our largest eastern cities. If the Gazette keeps up its present gait it will soon be the best daily in Colorado—(Western Fanciers Record

The Quarto centennial edition of the Colorado Springs Gazette was a mirror of modern journalism The cover was a lithographed portrait of an Indian brave mounted on his pony while on the back was a fine photograph of the new Antlers hotel On the inside of the covers beautiful half tones were displayed [illegible] of the state page showing the marvelous advancement that has been made in the past 25 years Its health features were also vividly portrayed Colorado's advance during the past quarter of a century is noticeable on every hand but no here more than in the art of newspaper publishing—(Aguilar Times

The Bible

(Des Moines News)

Joseph Jacobs of London seems to justify President Harper's criticism of modern Chautauqua lecturers who he says strain after a sensation and pervert facts by the utterances of startling propositions and half truths

Mr Jacobs in a lecture before the Atlantic Chautauqua assembly predicted that the Bible was losing prestige and [illegible] to reject [illegible] of its teachings

The Bible he said was the fullest book ever put out by a publisher It is a letter to all farmers and for the farmers and it reveals only their life In the past 200 years the country has changed from a country to a city life

[illegible] the American Bible society which by constantly putting in new machinery and running its presses day and night can scarcely keep up with the demand Not long since the chief bookseller of Philadelphia was quoted as to the sale of popular books In every instance the Bible stood at the head as the best selling book Where editions of popular novels sometimes [illegible] to the one hundred or two hundred thousands and long after the [illegible] not buy dull literature

To say that the Bible was written only for farmers and for interests only farmers is to say a ridiculous thing The Bible appeals to the universal heart It finds men at the lowest depths and at the loftiest heights It fits the spiritual sense of man as the indentations of the land fit the sea as the atmosphere fits the mountain and the valley It is a simple book As in its simplicity lies its beauty as well as its strength

The Bible [illegible] be revised and [illegible] bring the world of a rich heritage What would be thought of revising the language of Shakespeare? The literary world would revolt How much more would the religious world object to sacrilegious hands altering and remodeling the scriptures?

The Bible is taking care of itself It is being read and reread by countless thousands It is the hope and glory of the civilized world It is the only [illegible] that has come to us from antiquity

Mr Jacobs may be sincere but he is mistaken about the Bible losing its prestige [illegible] the many demand for its alteration to suit modern conditions The religious world even resents more or less the attempts of the higher criticism which seeks to alter single passages of the good book.

THE EXCLUSIVE TUXEDO

A COMEDIAN AT CLOSE RANGE

Uses Dumb Bells and Boxing Gloves After Every Performance

Of course in public Jimmie Powers is always ridiculous, and it is curious to note that almost all comedians are very sensitive on this point. They do not care how ridiculous they seem to be to the audience when they are in the [illegible] dread of being considered to be just as featherbrained in private life. Off the stage Mr. Powers is a quiet, unassuming little man that dresses a good deal in black, which gives him a trace of the cleric in demeanor. He and his wife lead an unpretentious domestic life free from any [illegible] other than what they really are. It is evident that Mr. Powers has great respect and [illegible] ent from the expressed enthusiasm with which he will quote her opinion. If you want to learn whether a married man is happy, don't ask him. Get an estimate of how far he goes in life by what his wife says.

If a man's business requires that he read a great deal he does not look for recreation in books. So the comedian inclines toward the serious in his amusements. Mr. Powers likes to go to the theater and naturally prefers a tragedy. He considers Sothern as Hamlet the most interesting performance he has seen this year. He reads a great many novels of the day, but his favorite novelist is Dickens. I asked him if I have a touch of [illegible] now and then. One curious observation he made on the author of Pickwick Papers was that Dickens describes a dinner better than any novelist he knows.

During the run of Yeomen of the Guard I sprained my ankle one night in hopping down two steps. Strange luck wasn't it for me? I used to do forty falls in the circus. I was laid up for several weeks and during all that time I read nothing but D[illegible] Kenilworth. I've read it over a [illegible] times. I order precisely the same things for my next dinner. It's great fun if [illegible] that doesn't bother his digestion.

Healthy? Yes. I've always been pretty healthy and he tapped his dressing table significantly. And I can eat anything. You see I get a lot of exercise in the parts I play. And after every performance I use dumb bells. My dresser is a physical instructor. He took a pair of boxing gloves out of the [illegible] and held them up.

Physical culture is a crime. You know [illegible]

He pointed to the calendar on the wall which was covered with type out of which glared in big letters "Weakness a Crime. Physical Culture!"

That is a typical bit of Powers humor. A ridiculous transposition of words, accompanied by a sly glance and a solemn comic gesture as it were of the whole body. Say it yourself and you cannot make it laughable.

"No, you couldn't get me to go on a yacht except one of about 16,000 tons. Horses? Yes, I like them pretty well but the elevated is quicker. Whenever I am on a horse I feel like a million dollars—better off. Travel is my sport. [illegible] and I spend the best part of [illegible] vacation travelling. It's good too to get away from home it freshens your ideas and enables you to dodge the people that think you can be working all the time. One summer we were up in the mountains and became acquainted with several young people at our table. I was having griddle cakes for breakfast this morning and just as I began to pour the syrup on them the young lady opposite me burst into a roar of laughter. I laid the jug down in a hurry and put my hand up to my face. I didn't know what might have happened to me while shaving.

Mrs. Powers asked the young woman what was the matter.

"He pours it so funny," she fairly screamed, and was off again. I thought of Gilbert's saying that an accepted wit has only to say "Pass the mustard" and [illegible] their ribs out.

"I've said a good deal about myself, haven't I? Well, the [illegible] is good, I suppose, but if you like to get the right figure go to me see Owen, the man at the [illegible] house. He wanted to keep Mr. Brohman from coming into his own theater one day. He's a character, though, as dull as A. T. Stewart's body guard. He thinks I'm a sham. Tried to Find Out "What's in a Name?"

Depositors at the El Paso bank have been notified to look out for a forger who has been passing bogus checks on local business men. A number of Colorado Springs merchants have been imposed upon by the swindler, it is said, all of the checks passed being for amounts varying between $5 and $20.

GENERAL TIE-UP MAY RESULT

Trades Assembly Ignored by Supt. Taff of the Electric Co. and May Involve Employes of Big Corporations.

Deplorable as such a situation would be, and disastrous as would be the results, there is apparently good ground for the fear that the strike of the ten or a dozen linemen formerly in the employ of the Colorado Springs Electric company may extend within a few days to the employes of the Rapid Transit company, the reduction plants at Colorado City and all other corporations using electric power or in any way related in business dealings with the Colorado Springs Electric company.

In other words, the strike of the linemen is likely to spread. All attempts which have been made to settle the dispute between the linemen and the electric company have come to naught and the workmen claim the officers of the company will not hold any conference with them. The Trades council has taken up the question simply with the view of compelling the employer to listen to the complaint of the men.

The linemen struck on account of a reduction in their wages from $3 per day to $75 per month. All the strikers are members of the local union of electrical workers. As soon as possible after the strike was declared Superintendent G. A. Taff of the company filled the places of the men who went out. All attempts of the strikers to have an audience with Mr. Taff, it is said, failed, and the union took the matter before the Trades council. This organization, it is claimed, made an appointment for a committee to meet Mr. Taff. The committee was on hand at the appointed time and place, but Mr. Taff did not keep the engagement. As Mr. Taff has had considerable trouble with employes of the company in all departments the members of the council say they do not expect much satisfaction from him.

If the company refuses to listen to the demands of the men it is said the Trades council will order a sympathetic strike of employes of the street railway companies and other big local corporations employing union men and using Colorado Springs Electric company power.

Union Athletes Will Meet in the Arena

The Trades council has arranged a splendid program of outdoor sporting events to take place on Labor day. Early in the afternoon there will be a series of foot races and other contests on the arena at Pike's Peak and Nevada avenues and afterwards a ball game between the Arcades of Colorado City, and a Colorado Springs team at Washburn field.

The arena contests will be public. There will be no admission fee. All entries to the different events will be free, but limited to members of labor union organizations with the exception of the juvenile events and base-running contests.

The program for the arena contests follows:

Tug-of-war between Federated Trades council and Building Trades council.
Foot race 50 yards.
Foot race, 100 yards.
Foot race 200 yards.
Foot race 50 yards; boys under 15.
Shetland pony race One third mile; riders under 15.

Nail drawing contest.
"Weavers" race 60 yards.
Putting 16-pound shot.

Hop, skip and jump.
Sack race—Boys under 15.
Tug of war between hod carriers and winners of first event.
Wheelbarrow race—50 yards to a stake.

All entries are free, but are limited to members of labor union organizations, and their working cards must be produced, with the exceptions of the juvenile events and the base-running contests.

SOLDIER BOYS OF NINETY-EIGHT

Spanish War Veterans Had a Rousing Meeting and Perfected Organization---Fifty Two Enrolled.

Fifty-two names were placed on the roll of the organization of local veterans of the Spanish-American war at a meeting held last night in Weber hall. A permanent organization was effected and at the next meeting officers will be elected and a decision will be made as to what national society the Colorado Springs camp will join.

There was great enthusiasm at the meeting last evening. The call had been sent out five days ago stating that an organization would be formed, but the hopes of the organizers as to the number who would respond were more than realized. The First Colorado regiment of Volunteers was represented by the largest number, but there were soldiers there who had served in many other organizations during the war.

Lieutenant James A. Gowdy was made temporary chairman of the meeting and W. A. Stanton temporary secretary. The constitution and by-laws which had been prepared were read. The objects of the organization are stated in the preamble of the constitution, which reads:

"The objects of this society shall be the perpetuation of ties of friendship between the individuals and the organizations of the army and navy of the United States, honoring the memory of those who gave up their lives for the flag, and preserving the history and relics of the memorable campaigns in the Spanish-American war and Philippine insurrection."

The following nominations were made for officers to be chosen at the next meeting on September 2: T. E. Linn, president; J. H. Gowdy, E. E. Baty, Dr. Donaldson and H. O. Rhode, vice president; W. H. Stanton and William [illegible], secretary; [illegible] G. Smith and [illegible] M. Adams, treasurer.

It was decided that the society should decide at the next meeting with what national organization it would become affiliated.

The following names were enrolled:

ANACONDA LEASES

Increased Production Makes Up for Higher Royalties---News of the Victor Mining Properties.

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, Aug. 20.—The Anaconda leases on Gold hill are doing well and the majority of those working are shipping good ore. While the royalty is a little higher than it formerly was the lessees seem to be taking out enough mineral to make up for the difference.

Ogilvie and company working on the Great View claim, will make a production of 75 tons or better for the month of August. The grade of the ore runs from $30 to $40 per ton. It is from the several veins at the 100-foot level which have been producing steadily for nearly a year. Some good development work is being pushed at present and the lessees are crosscutting from the north drift to reach a vein opened at a depth of 40 feet in the sub lease which is not at present being operated. A survey was made showing that there was about 25 feet of work to do which had not been counted on. When the vein is cut the lessees will immediately have from 50 to 60 feet of stoping ground on a good sized vein which gives high grade assays from small streaks. The average of screenings across the five-foot vein in the sub-lease ran well into smelting grade. The old stope are being cleaned out preparatory to the resumption of sinking. The shaft is shortly to be put down for another 100 feet which is as deep as the terms of the lease allow.

McDonald and company, operating the Excelsior claim adjoining are getting into a better grade of ore as the shaft is deepened. The workings are now down to the 165-foot depth, at which point the formation has changed somewhat and sylvanite instead of free gold shows in the streaks. Assays indicate values as high as $175 to the ton, in a fluorine stained quartz. The lessees are going to the 200-foot depth, at which point they will begin stoping on two veins intersecting close to the shaft. A small amount of ore is being saved in sinking and regular production will be resumed as soon as the objective depth is reached.

Lessee Wilcox, on the south block of the Grace Greenwood, is saving a small amount of high grade ore from a streak on which he is drifting north at the 50-foot depth. The streak averages about two inches in width and the rock ships at from 10 to 20 ounces in gold to the ton. The drift has been run for a distance of 30 feet and will be continued as long as the ore holds out. The vein alongside of the rich streak is of good size, but gives assays of only $2 in gold to the ton. It is showing some improvement, however, and it is thought that the one-foot gouge streak will be soon carrying pay values.

Victor, Aug. 20.—The Cripple Creek Mining company which now owns the lease on block No. 2 of the Deadwood on Bull hill, has commenced sinking the shaft an additional 100 feet, which will put it down to the 750-foot depth. From here a crosscut will be run to the east where a pay ore body is assured. The ore was proved up in sinking a winze below the 650 foot level, where the vein is of good size and carries very rich ore in streaks.

McEnnis and associates have been granted a lease on one of the west blocks of the Findley and will put down a new shaft commencing at once. The shaft will be sunk to a depth of 100 feet where a crosscut will be run for the vein which was opened in the middle block of the Atlanta at the 750-foot depth. The raft and pumps are leasing the Atlanta claim, will probably put their shaft down for another 100 feet where they expect to find the ore body better in place.

A very heavy production is being made from the Steelsmith lease on the Findley and Mountain Beauty property. A heavy train of ore will be sent out in a day or two to Pueblo. The lessees are working at a depth of 900 feet where they are getting their richest ore. Several feet of the vein gives an average value of better than two ounces in gold to the ton.

Helen B. stock has shown considerable improvement in the past few days and it is said that the company has encountered ore in the 100-foot level of the property on Tenderfoot hill. The officials of the company refuse to confirm the report of the strike, giving the reason for the advance that there is a very good showing on the property. The company has been crosscutting for the vein which was cut in the 25-foot depth of the shaft, dipping strongly to the east. At the shallow depth the values were not regular enough to warrant production.

MARY M'KINNEY SUBDUES ITS UNDERGROUND RIVERS

A Year's Tireless Pumping Has Drained the Ground Above the Fifth Level Until the Flow Is Reduced by 500 Gallons.

The water in the Mary McKinney mine is being conquered slowly but surely by the tireless pumping which has been in progress for the last year, and the flow has been reduced from about 1,500 gallons per minute to less than 1,000 gallons per minute. There is now a perceptible diminishing in the flow each week, and it is the opinion of those who are acquainted with the situation in Cripple Creek that the flow will be entirely subdued in a few months more, so that sinking can be again resumed.

The importance of this fact is great. The Mary McKinney has had a worse struggle with water than any mine in the camp. For months its fifth level was submerged and only the most persistent pumping and increased facilities ever recovered it, and the mine has been held up as proving the fact that there existed in Cripple Creek underground water courses similar to those in Leadville. In the latter camp the water rushes through the hills in great subterranean rivers, and although courses in Cripple Creek, but they are the accumulation of ages, and the pumping of years will undo the work of ages, and before the flow could attain its former size Cripple Creek would have been many years dug out. It is now simply a question of steady pumping until the water will be gradually drained from the channels. Each new level will mean the work which was necessary to unwater the mine has one above, but once a level is dry, it is dry for aye.

This does not affect the need for a drainage tunnel. That would simplify the problem still further, and will undoubtedly be driven.

MR. CONNOR GOES TO MEXICO

He Will See to His Interests in Guanajuato and Start Heavier Development---Eastern Capitalists Accompany Him.

Mr. James C. Connor of the firm of Connor & Wray, left yesterday for Mexico on one of his periodical visits to the mining properties in which is interested in the Guanajuato district. Accompanying him are several eastern capitalists who will look over the mines which Mr. Connor and his associates now control, and will probably secure properties for themselves in the district.

The mines in which Mr. Connor, together with Mr. C. E. Palmer and Mr. H. K. Devereux of this city, is interested, are now being unwatered under local management, and some development work is being done. One of the objects of Mr. Connor's journey is to make arrangements for further development work, and when this is under way Mr. Palmer will gordown to take entire charge of the work.

The mines in this district are among the oldest in Mexico, and the district is one of the largest in the world. For the richness of its mines, and the extent of its veins the district has received a small amount of development, and there are inviting opportunities there for the mining men of modern ideas who have gone over the ground.

Colorado Springs capital is going into the district quite extensively, several prominent capitalists and brokerage houses having become interested. Mr. James Burns and Mr. Frank Peck have invested money there, and the firms of Bonbright and Otis have also acquired property there. Messrs. Connor, Palmer and Devereux were among the very first to go in, however, and it is they who are doing things on the greatest scale now. Mr. Connor stated that they were very anxious to branch out, and he expects to acquire additional interests in the same district before he returns.

Mr. Wray, of Connor & Wray, does not accompany his partner on the trip but remains here in charge of the brokerage department. The firm was organized some months ago to engage in the mining stock and mining investment business, Mr. Connor looking after the outside interests and Mr. Wray representing the firm on the floor of the exchange. The association of the two gentlemen, each of whom has had much experience in the branch of the business, which he is following, has met with much success.

ALAMO IS SAVING SOME ORE

In Its Work From the Ophelia Tunnel Level 30 Inches of Low Grade Rock Has Been Developed---Rich Free Gold Specimens.

Ore is now being saved by the Alamo company in the work which it is prosecuting from the Ophelia tunnel level. A streak of quartz 30 inches in width has been developed now for some distance and the values have been constantly improving, until now a low grade shipping product can be saved. It is thought that in the next 100 feet of work the values will improve further and make the shoot a very good shipper.

There are streaks in the shoot now which assay into the thousands. A specimen of this ore was on exhibition at the offices of the president, Jno. W. Proudfit at his offices in the Antlers hotel yesterday. The specimen is as pretty a one as is ever seen from Gold hill properties, and carries with it an assurance of better values across the entire vein.

The company is pursuing very good work in two different places at this depth, the operations being carried on with three shifts and machine drills. The tunnel is in about 800 feet in addition with the shaft, which will permit a more effective development of the property.

COLORADO'S COPPER AND LEAD

Charles Kirchoff Makes His Report on Production of These Metals in the U. S. in Which Colorado Shows Up Well.

The Rocky Mountain News publishes the following [illegible] relative to Colorado's copper and lead production, which is as follows:

Charles Kirchoff has made his annual report on the lead and copper production in the United States. He says that never in the history of the lead industry in the United States has so large an increase taken place in a single year as in 1901. A startling proof has been furnished of the capacity of the mines to expand production and of the fact that in times of a normal demand the prices prevailing last year are too high.

Colorado's product is given as 82,137 short tons, as against 70,208 in 1899.

The report on copper says last year was an exceedingly prosperous one for the copper mining and smelting industry.

Colorado's product, including smelters purchasing ore and mattes in unknown markets, 7,826,949 pounds, against 11,643,608 in the preceding year.

Wyoming, $4,203,776, against $3,104,827.

New Mexico, $4,169,400, against $5,925,441.

Montana has increased her lead over all other states. Arizona shows a decline of about 15,000,000, and Utah doubles her product.

Mr. Kirchoff says the new works of the Santa Fe, N. M., Gold-Copper Mining company were not completed until very late in the year, so that the output will not appear until 1901. The greater part of the copper ores originating in this territory last year were handled at the Silver City Reduction works.

MINING NOTES AROUND TOWN

It was reported in a Denver paper yesterday that a consolidation was to be effected between the Lillie and Vindicator, adjoining properties on Bull hill, and the rumor aroused some interest in mining circles. It was learned however, on application to the Lillie offices in this city that there was no truth in the report. For some years the Vindicator has been doing the Lillie's pumping, and the publicity which has recently been given to this comparatively trivial fact seems to have been responsible for the consolidation rumors. The Vindicator company is mining its own ore shoots at the present time, and doing very well; while the Lillie is engaged in hunting its lost ore shoots, and accordingly it might tax the ingenuity of consolidation experts to work out an agreeable basis for a merger.

FANNY RAWLINGS DEBT IS ALL BUT WIPED OUT.

The Fanny Rawlings company is receiving regular royalties from the South Winnie Leasing company, which is operating the north end of their property at Leadville, and the company is rapidly getting on its feet. When the strike was made on the property the company was about $10,000 in debt, due to the company's unsuccessful operations in the main shaft, but the indebtedness now amounts to only about $5,000, and at the present rate of income this will be wiped out in a few weeks, when the company will be in a sound condition. Dividends are not even alluded to by the officers, but with the constant improvement on the property, it does not seem unlikely to suppose the company on a dividend paying basis in a few months. The lease has still about three years to run. The lessees are sinking in the shaft which is now 250 feet deep, 45 feet below the level where the ore was found. In a few feet more drifting will be started. South Winnie stock is selling at Leadville for 37½ cents a share. The capitalization is 250,000 shares.

BONBRIGHT'S NEW WIRE IS PROVING POPULAR.

The special wire to Chicago and New York which Bonbright & Co. have leased was in operation promptly Monday morning, and gave perfect satisfaction from the start. The Counselman "gossip" streamed in almost continuously during the day and contained many news items of general interest. The firm's commodious customers' room has been so arranged as to afford a fine blackboard display of the Cripple Creek shares, which latter is now being made the special feature. Mr. Thomas Gibson, who with his assistants manages the wire, is an expert of 15 years' experience on the Chicago and New York exchanges. Yesterday the new department was in perfect working order, and a large volume of business on the New York and Chicago markets as well as the local mining stock exchange was transacted by the firm. The new feature is proving popular.

HOME DIVIDEND WAS PAID YESTERDAY.

The regular monthly dividend of the Leadville Home Mining company was paid to stockholders of record yesterday. This is the tenth dividend which the company has paid, amounting to $12,500 and swelling the total which has been distributed to stockholders to $187,500. The dividend is at the rate of five-eighths of a cent per share on the outstanding stock. The Home company owns leases of a very long term on four mines in Leadville, all of which are of considerable importance. The Bon Air shaft is now producing a good amount of ore daily, all of which goes to the local smelters. The local company is one of the best known of the public corporations in the Leadville district, and the recent increase in the number of shares is making it a good trader in Leadville, although local investors have not yet given it much attention.

EL PASO DIVIDEND HAS BEEN ISSUED.

The stock dividend of the El Paso Consolidated company of 525,000 shares to the Cripple Creek Columbia company has now been issued, the stock having been turned over to the Columbia officers this morning. Stockholders in the Cripple Creek Columbia company can obtain their certificates in the El Paso company at any time from now on by applying to the Columbia offices and surrendering their old certificates. The outstanding stock in the Columbia company is 1,050,000 shares, and the El Paso dividend means one share of new stock for every two of the old. When the Columbia books closed that stock was selling for about 7[illegible] cents, while El Paso now is worth about 54, equal to 27 cents for Columbia stock. The deal which is thus wound up by the delivery of the stock issue to the Columbia officers is one of the fairest which has ever been consummated in the city, and has caused much satisfaction in local mining circles.

GOLD COIN AND OTHER BOOKS CLOSED.

The books of the Gold Coin, Consolidated Gold Mines and New Zealand Consolidated companies closed yesterday previous to the payment of the regular monthly dividends on the 25th inst. The Gold Coin will distribute $30,000, which is a rate of three cents per share, and will bring the total amount distributed by the company up to $850,000. The Consolidated Mines company will pay $19,000, and the New Zealand $7,650 each of which are at the rate of one cent per share. The three companies are controlled by the Woods Investment company of Victor, and the Consolidated Mines company is the corporation which owns the Wild Horse mine which has recently come into great prominence because of the discovery of one of the richest ore bodies ever known in Cripple Creek.

A VALUABLE LIFE SAVED

At Panama, Colombia, by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

Dr. Charles H. Utter, a prominent physician of Panama, Colombia, in a recent letter states: "Last March I had as a patient a young lady 16 years of age, who had a very bad attack of dysentery. Everything I prescribed for her proved ineffectual and she was growing worse every hour. Her parents were sure she would die. She had become so weak that she could not turn over in bed. What to do at this critical moment was a study to me, but I thought of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and as a last resort prescribed it. The most wonderful result was effected. Within eight hours she was feeling much better; inside of three days she was upon her feet and at the end of one week was entirely well." For sale by all druggists.

COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

Springs, Aug. 20.—The mining market today showed increased with only a few exceptions. The trading was heavy, however, and the demand for all classes of stocks was considerably greater than the supply. The market loosened a great deal for a break in prices, and orders which had been being filled at prices that were left last week. The feeling, which is always the strongest when the market is at its best, was in evidence yesterday than it has been for some time and the reports which came from Cripple Creek that the camp was so active are now tended to the confidence which has been broken in the great Elkton, which is one of the strongest stock on the boards, was in greater demand than ever, selling up to $1.43, although it fell slightly at the close to $1.32. El Paso suffered quite a serious reaction to $1. But Gold Dollar was strong at 20, and Golden Cycle gained to 65¾. Eclipse was the banner trader of both calls, and sold up to 13, buyer 30, on the best of reports from the mine, but it is thought that the advance is due more to the demand by the shorts rather than to any new developments on the property. Doctor was very strong, closing at 63¾, and Mollie Gibson was in good demand, as was Butterfly, both selling around 5c. Helen B. was the feature of the lower priced stocks, being very extensively traded in, and sold up to 4¼, due to unconfirmed reports of a strike on the property which is located on Tenderfoot hill.

EASTERN MARKETS

New York, Aug. 20.—The stock market was somewhat broader and more active today, but there was still no evidence of any large participation in the market by the general public or by great financial interests on a large scale. [illegible] U. S. Steel stocks and the doubtful outlook for the labor situation are still a drag on the general market, although the market for the U. S. Steel stocks themselves and their price movement are narrow. The market guardians of the stocks show themselves amply able to take charge of all the stock offered, showing that the company's shares have come to be closely held. But the supporters of the stocks are inclined to take profits on holdings thus acquired upon any advance in price and they bid up the prices when anything like an outside demand develops for the stocks. Under these artificial conditions, the movements of the stock has little significance. The general list showed a disposition today to ignore the steel stocks. The railroads concerned in the Northern Pacific settlement and others allied by identical ownership, or otherwise, resumed the leadership of the market today. This may have been based upon a published report of a prolonged conference yesterday at Bar Harbor, between the three financiers who conducted the Northern Pacific contest and its settlement. The Morgan and Harriman roads were generally affected in sympathy, including Illinois Central, Chicago & Alton, Southern Railway and Chicago, Indianapolis & Louisville. The anthracite carriers manifested some strength and the bituminous coal carriers made gains, although Norfolk & Western and Chesapeake & Ohio suffered from profit-taking. A sharp decrease in earnings of Norfolk & Western for the second week in August seemed to emphasize this disposition. Some large individual blocks of Southern Pacific, Union Pacific and St. Paul were taken in the last hour and those stocks rose 1¾@1¾ over last night. The stock market continued to show sensitiveness to developments in the money and exchange market. Another recovery in sterling this morning led to some reaction from the opening strength in stocks. Offerings of wheat bills were reported smaller in connection of reports of smaller boards, wheat clearances, which caused a reaction in the wheat market. But this influence was largely offset by the large receipts on account of Australian gold deposited at San Francisco. The subtreasury's debit balance at the clearing house of $1,852,802 was caused by receipt of calls against gold on the Pacific coast to the amount of $1,400,000. A further shipment of $2,500,000 is on the way to San Francisco from Sydney. This makes it evident that the London market will find a way to meet its gold obligations to New York without stress and possibly without actual shipments of gold. It is to be noted, however, that United States treasury operations continue to drain the money market, the government's surplus thus far this month having reached $1,854,021, while for the corresponding period of last year the government's fiscal operations showed a deficit of $4,381,563. The market closed rather heavy, under the influence of a general disposition to realize.

Railroad bonds continued very dull and with no movement of significance. Total sales, par value, $1,545,000.

U. S. bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

New York Stocks.

Continuous quotations on New York stocks and grain. Pike's Peak Brokerage Co., 23 East Pike's Peak avenue.

The London Market.

New York, Aug. 20.—The Commercial Advertiser's London financial cable gram:

Although there was a complete dearth of business here today the tone of the stock market was steady, the investment shares especially hardening on yesterday's gold arrivals. London in the early trading attempted to advance American shares, but there was no stamina in the effort and they relapsed to parity at the New York opening. There was a small inquiry for Norfolk & Western, Southern Pacific, St. Paul and Union Pacific, causing a firm close.

New York Money.

New York, Aug. 20.—Money on call closed steady, 2@3; last loan, 2½; prime mercantile paper, 4½@5.

Chicago Grain and Provisions.

Chicago, Aug. 20.—A falling off in clearances and an improvement in the corn crop prospects were influential in the grain markets today. Trade was moderately active and the close weak, wheat 1¼@1¾c, corn ¾c and oats ⅝c lower for September delivery. Provisions closed 12½c and 15c to 25c depressed.

The Metal Market.

New York, Aug. 20.—Again the metal market was a slow line. Prices were without material change and largely nominal in the absence of orders in either direction. The close on pig tin was dull at $26.55, showing a slight loss under a sheer lack of support. Tin in London was somewhat unsettled, opening 15s up; it finally closed weak with prices back to last night's figures, thus spot closed at £115, 17s 6d and futures at £111, 2s 6d. Copper was nominally unchanged here at $16.50@17.00 for lake and $15.37½@16.62½ for casting and electrolytic, while in London values were 5s up to £66, 11s 2d for spot and £67, 2s 6d for futures. Lead was dull at $4.37½ here, while a net gain of 1s 3d was reported in London, spot there closing at £11, 3d. Spelter holds steady in local circles at yesterday's quotations, $4.62½@4.70, but was quiet and unchanged in London at £17, 2s 6d. Domestic iron markets were inactive and unchanged.

THE SAME OLD STORY

Told on the Streets of Colorado Springs as Well as Elsewhere.

Some things you cannot tell too often. Repetition gives them strength.

The same old story is pleasant to hear,
When it brings happiness to the home:
Brings joy to the afflicted;
Tells how burdens can be raised;
How the back can be relieved;
All the pains and aches removed;
Proves how easily it's done.

Colorado Springs people—tell this story:

Friends and neighbors talk of it. Their tell about their kidney ills; How they suffered—how the cures came;
What they think of Doan's Kidney Pills.

Here is what a citizen says:

Mr. F. J. Webber of 110 W. Costilla street says: "In the case of a boy in whom I was interested, I was not in a position to watch him closely but from what his mother and aunt, who look after him, tell me Doan's Kidney Pills have done him a great amount of good. For three or four years he had symptoms of kidney trouble; complained of his back hurting him and was troubled with urinary weakness. Doan's Kidney Pills have checked this and he does not complain of his back any longer. My wife saw the pills advertised and got a box at Jones & Wellington's drug store, 100 N. Tejon street. I fully believe the case will be of any use to you I am pleased to give it."

For sale by all dealers; price 50c. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name Doan's and take no substitute.

GRAND ARMY AT CLEVELAND.

The Burlington Route announces a rate of $16.90—less than one fare—from Pueblo, Colorado Springs and Denver and intermediate points, to Cleveland, Ohio, and return. The rate from other points in Colorado will be one fare added to the nearest point from which the $16.90 rate applies. All agents will be instructed to sell through tickets on September 7 to 10, inclusive, routed via the Burlington, if so desired by the purchaser. These tickets will be limited to September 15, with privilege of extension to leave Cleveland as late as October 8. No other line can offer a cheaper rate or better service. One can leave Denver on the Burlington's famous "Chicago Special" at 4:00 p. m. and reach Cleveland the second morning at 7:40, the only change of cars being at Chicago. This service is available to every one—whether Pullman berths are desired or not—for the latest pattern reclining chair cars, in which seats are free, are carried on this train, in addition to Pullman sleepers and buffet-library, observation car. Meals are served to all in dining cars on the popular plan of "pay only for what you get," whether only 25 cents' worth or more. These dining cars are not expected to realize a profit, but are in operation for the convenience of the traveling public which accounts for the excellence of the service. Nowhere in the world can one get so much for so little money.

If you contemplate a trip to the east why not join "the old guard" and radiate from Cleveland to your further destination?

The annual encampment of the G. A. R. will soon be a matter of history, and as this one promises to eclipse all others in point of lavish hospitality, it is well worth a visit.

Why not go and take the Burlington? It costs no more than any other line.

With reference to berths and other information, a letter addressed to Geo. Vallery, general agent, Denver, will elicit prompt attention.

NEWS AND NOTES

LOST THE FIRST WON THE SECOND

Millionaires Split Even With the Kidnapers.

ELEVEN INNINGS AGAIN

After Presenting the First Game to Omaha the Locals Settled Down and Played a Fast Game

Colorado Springs presented the first of yesterday's double header to Omaha and took the second after much hard work, in the eleventh inning. The first game was so rotten that many of the fans left in disgust at its close and missed the very pretty exhibition which followed.

In the first game McNeeley was hit freely and the team did not give him very good support as an error column totaling six will show.

Stewart made Omaha's first run in the first inning by hitting out a three bagger and scoring on an error. A pretty double play by Hulen, Ream and Holland cut off further scoring. The locals failed to score.

In the second inning the Millionaires got a lead that should have won the game for them. O'Connell's three bagger started it by scoring Holland who had reached first on four balls. Hernon got on first and played off between the bases getting Omaha to throw the ball around and while all this was going on O'Connell scored while Hernon reached second in safety. Donahue hit one through first and Hernon got around the bases in fast time and scored. The side was retired on the next play but the Springs had tallied three men to one for the Kidnapers.

The third was uneventful but the fourth was a terror. It looked as though Mr. McNeeley was trying to see how hard the visitors could hit a straight ball. Fleming started off with a three bagger. Calhoun drove a hot one to Hulen and reached first on the fumble while Fleming scored. Letcher followed with a single over third base. McNeeley hit McAndrews and filled the bases. Toman the little slugger turned a neat trick and drove a two bagger between right and center field and Calhoun and Letcher scored but McAndrews was caught at the plate. Gonding came in with another two bagger and Toman scored. McNeeley gave Coons his base on balls and Genins single to center field scored two men. Stewart made an out for variety's sake and Coons got caught out between third and home and the misery was ended with Omaha three runs to the good.

The locals added one run in the fifth and in the seventh the score was tied through good stick work and fast base running by Hulen. McNeeley the first man up in this inning got a nice single. Bandelin filed out and then Hulen came in with a beautiful two bagger. Hemphill drove a hot one to third and McNeeley scored on the play and Hulen came right behind him and scored the tieing run by taking advantage of a muffed ball at home.

In the ninth a combination of hits and errors gave Omaha the game a second time. Gonding drove a hot one to Hulen and the ball was fumbled. Coons followed with a clean single to center field. Genins then drove a high fly to right field. The wind was strong and it was hard to judge the ball and to cap it all Bandelin lost his legs and the ball fell safe and Gonding scored. Stewart came to time with a long fly to center field and Coons scored. Gonding was caught out at second and Ream's fine stop of Calhoun's hot shot retired that gentleman at first.

The crowd pleaded for enough to tie any way but the necessary hits were not forthcoming and the game closed with the score unchanged. Twelve hits were scored off McNeeley and they were bunched at the time that the rest of the team was feeling bad and a few errors always came in handy for the Omahogs.

The second game was pretty and exciting. Jarvin was on the rubber for the locals and pitched winning ball. It was closely contested and was not decided until the eleventh inning. Alloway pitched first class ball for Omaha but the locals outbatted the visitors and won on their hits.

Hemphill hurt his leg in the first game and at his request was left out of the second at the start. Holland went to center field and Gaston took bag No. 1. In the second inning Hulen got out on him and Hemphill had to go in. He played short and put up a good game his strong arm saving him from an error in two instances.

Omaha scored her first run at the start on a high fly which was misjudged by Bandelin. The wind made it a difficult play and Bandelin missed it. The locals scored in the second on a two bagger by Ream and a single by Donahue. In the sixth the visitors took the lead on a two bagger by Toman, a fielder's choice and an error by Gaston at first. Omaha held this lead up to the ninth inning when Gaston [illegible] which added an error to third and Hernon's slow bouncer to third scored the tieing run.

Letcher made it look bad for the locals by starting off the tenth with a two bagger but Parvin was there with the goods and Omaha could not hit safe and failed to score although Letcher got as far as third. For the Springs Parvin started off with a hot single to right and advanced to second on Hemphill's single to center but got no farther.

In the eleventh Omaha went out in one two three order and the crowd yelled like demons. Then Holland came up and smote the sphere mightily and [illegible] first baseman catcher and fielder was safe on second base. Handsome Jack O'Connell completed the trick with a clean single over third base and Holland tore around third and across home plate for the winning run. It was a whirlwind finish and made up in part for the rotten work of the previous game.

Hernon was the bright particular star of the second game. He took those flies in like an old timer and made one or two hard catches. Tom had to doff his cap when he came in after a very pretty catch and when he stepped to the bat next time he got the "glad hand" again. Hernon also distinguished himself by making the hit that brought in Gaston for the run that tied the score.

Hollingsworth did not arrive yesterday but he is expected this morning and will probably be in the game this afternoon.

Tannehill's foot is still bothering him but he hopes to be in the game today.

Hemphill is not so slow as a short stop. He handled himself in good shape yesterday after Hulen retired.

In the first game there were no strike outs by either pitcher.

Bandelin [illegible] yesterday. He had a difficult catch to make in the first game but he allowed his legs to tangle up on him and went down.

Hulen's base running in the seventh when he scored from second on a missed ball at the plate indicated an effort to win out. It was one of the features of the game.

The first game was marked by several doubles and a number of pretty plays but the errors all came when Omaha was hitting.

THE MATTER WITH THE MILLIONAIRES

Another Chapter in the Interesting Sporting Story.

ABOUT THE BATTING ORDER

Is Captain Donahue Trying to Kill the Team in This City?—His Actions Are Hard to Construe.

A house divided against itself cannot stand. This is a saying that applies to baseball as well as to other things. A team in which there is strife cannot work together.

Friction in the Colorado Springs base ball team has been responsible in a large measure for the poor showing of the team at the present time. Continued friction is apt to land the Millionaires at the bottom of the list.

It has been well known for some time that the feeling between Hulen and Donahue the owners of the Colorado Springs team has not been of the best. The cause has been told before—it is unnecessary to repeat it. A week or so ago it was generally understood that the trouble had been patched up but this seems to be far from the case at the present writing.

Yesterday Donahue asked captain Carruthers for the batting order of his team. Donahue handed him the order as follows:

McNeeley pitcher
Donahue catcher
[illegible]
Hulen short stop
Holland first base
Ream second base
O'Connell third base
Hemphill center fielder

Once fans who have been following the Colorado Springs baseball team how does that batting order strike you.

Isn't it a stunner? Compare it with the regular batting order of the team. Notice where Hemphill comes in. See where Bandelin and Hulen come in. Notice the place assigned to O'Connell and to Holland. Doesn't it dazzle your eyes!

But it didn't dazzle Hulen's eyes to any great extent. When the home team came up to the bat McNeeley picked up his stick and started for the plate but Hulen said "Nay. Turning to Umpire Carruthers he said "We will bat in our regular order" and he informed the scorer of the same thing. And the team did bat in the regular order.

What was Donahue's object in arranging such a batting order?

It is hard to conceive unless he was trying to throw the game and this action is all through the game wouldn't lead a man who knew anything about baseball to think he was trying very hard to win out.

To say the least the members of the team are disgusted at this friction and it is not likely that they will play any better. There is no question but that favoritism is shown and the Gazette's sporting man thinks it is a poor scheme to jump on a man who has been playing a good game because of his failure to make a phenomenal stop at a critical time. Such rounds are not calculated to make a man play very hard and when one man gets it shot into him once or twice he is apt to feel sore. When a man feels sore he is not in the best condition to play.

Donahue's action in deliberately changing the batting order yesterday and arranging it contrary to all the recognized principles of the game lays him open to such criticism and to the charge of not trying to give the fans a fair shake. Such action makes the [illegible] the whole team and all those connected with it suffer unjustly for in all affairs of this kind there is usually one man at the bottom of it and he alone should bear the brunt of it.

It may be that Mr. Donahue is trying to kill off the team in this city. He is going the right way about it to accomplish that result and the best efforts of others will not avail if he continues to be the disconsolant element for he can spoil it all.

Mr. Donahue you cannot complain of the support accorded you. The fans have turned out and tried to help you win. The fans of this city are anxious to give you a fair shake and they believe they have done that. Yes, they have given you individually the best of it for there have been other catchers [illegible] with the rest of the team in an uphill fight to end in a respectable position.

FABLE.

One day as the elephant was passing through the forest he came upon a hare who had fallen into a pool and was shivering with cold, and in his good hearted-ness he stopped and called out:

"How now, Mistress Hare, but what is the trouble here?"

"Alas, but I fell into the pond and am almost dying with a chill," wailed the hare.

"Say you so—Ah! but we can easily remedy that. I will lie down beside you, and the heat of my body will soon make you warm and blithe again."

And the elephant tumbled down with a grunt and a groan, and observed that he was always cheerfully willing to put himself out for the sake of others, especially for the weak and helpless.

After a quarter of an hour, and not hearing from the hare, he rose up to inquire if she felt better, and to his sorrow and consternation he discovered that he had crushed the life out of her as he lay down.
